| 2-3 monthsbeforesubmission | Ask your supervisor when he/she would have time to proofread the final draft of your dissertation.  |   |
| 3001111331011                      | Plan accordingly!   |   |

Min. 5-6 weeks before submission

- Inform GGNB / IMPRS / MolMed / CVS Office of planned submission (informal, by e-mail) and send proposal for examination board (see above).
- Arrange date, time and location for thesis defense with members of your examination board. See below.
- Only in exceptional cases (e.g. one of the reviewers cannot attend in person): if your thesis defense needs to be held in a hybrid format, please make sure your examination board members and the speaker of your PhD program confirm (shortly after thesis submission at the latest) to GGNB / IMPRS/ MolMed / CVS Office by email that they agree to a hybrid disputation and to the video-conferencing tool you plan to use.
- Please discuss with your examination board whether a member may request a printed version for his/her personal use; we will only distribute the digital version.

IMPORTANT:

- Date, time and location of your thesis defense are required for submission of your thesis. Without it, your submitted thesis cannot be processed.
- The thesis defense has to take place as soon as possible but not sooner than 6 weeks after your admission to the doctoral examination. No exceptions.
   In case your defense takes place more than 8 weeks after submission, the admission to the examination procedure may be put on hold.
- At the thesis defense, at least 2/3 of the members of the examination board have to be present, incl. the reviewers of the thesis. The exam can go ahead as long as only 1 or 2 members (not the reviewers) are absent.
- In case of scheduling conflicts with more than 2 members of the examination board, please find a new member who will be available for your thesis defense (approval is required).
- After thesis submission, a change of the examination board is not possible.

2-3 weeks before submission

Discuss with supervisor whether you will apply for an embargo/restricted online publication (see handout on GGNB internal and §21.8): only an abstract will be published for one year after the thesis defense; the doctoral candidate may already receive his/her degree diploma.

The application needs to be submitted to GGNB / IMPRS / MolMed / CVS Office on the day of thesis submission.

Important note: If you are considering pursuing an academic career, please make sure that you familiarize yourself with the eligibility criteria of various funding agencies concerning the cut-off dates for applying for fellowships. Especially the highly attractive longer term or junior group funding schemes (e.g. Emmy Noether, Sofja Kovalevskaja, Helmholtz, Fritz Thyssen) are varying in this regard. For some the cut-off date is the date of your PhD certificate, for some it is that of your thesis defense, which makes a noteworthy difference when, for example, you can only apply up to four years after your PhD. In this regard, please make yourself familiar with these regulations early on and, if possible for you, consider an embargo/restricted online publication to avoid missing the chance to apply for these funding schemes. Please check the cut-off dates of a selection of fellowships here (please note the list is not exhaustive).

| Convocation ceremony  | With your admission to the doctoral examination, you are registered for the next convocation ceremony in the Aula am Wilhelmsplatz (see the e-mail for the date and time). Your participation is very much welcome and expected.  IMPORTANT: If you are unable to attend this event/date, please inform the GGNB/IMPRS/MolMed/CVS Office one week before the ceremony at the latest. To be able to take part, the minutes of your thesis defense have to arrive at our office at least one week before the ceremony — no exceptions.  Check here to rent a handcart for the Gänseliesl part of the festivities (if applicable).  |  |
